International patients' admission flowchart

Patient or her/his companion refer to reception unit via admission order

Does that order relate to this center's doctor?

No → Patient's receptionist, introduce the patient to center's specialized clinic, so that they could get the admission order after expert's visits

Yes → Receptionists or operators give turns or admission order over that day, after getting coordinated with related doctor

→ Informing the expert of the international patients' unit

Patient refers to the reception via needed documents, in defined and adjusted time

Welcoming the patient and companions and giving the necessary guidance about the treatment package and also documents needed for getting admitted

Receptionist registers the patients' specification in the system according to the passport

Accompanying the patient over related ward

Is there any free bed at the?

Informing the IPD doctor for primary visits

No → IPD expert ask the patient to stay at centers lobby, so that other patients would get released and the beds would get ready

Keeping track of non-therapeutic affairs of patient till releasing day

Yes → Receptionist admit the patient

IPD expert accompanies the patient to the cash desk for paying the prepaid expenses

Patient gets directed to related ward for admission sake